EUGENIO SEVILLA and STEPHANIE GARRIDO, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated,

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs,

-against-

HOUSE OF SALADS ONE LLC (D/B/A HOUSE OF SALADS) and ASHER BEN
TOV,

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiffs Eugenio Sevilla and Stephanie Garrido, individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively, “Plaintiffs”), by and through their attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon their knowledge and belief, and as against House of Salads One LLC (d/b/a House of Salads), (“Defendant Corporation”) and Asher Ben Tov, (“Individual Defendant”), (collectively, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants House of Salads One LLC (d/b/a House of Salads) and Asher Ben Tov.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a wholesale and retail seller of gourmet salads, located at 6167 Strickland Ave, Brooklyn, New York, 11234 under the name “House of Salads”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendant Asher Ben Tov, serve or served as owner, manager, principal, or agent of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operates or operated the company as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiffs were employed as a kitchen manager and a salad preparer at the company located at 6167 Strickland Ave, Brooklyn, New York, 11234.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that they worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiffs appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which they had to work over 10 hours a day.

8. Furthermore, Defendants repeatedly failed to pay Plaintiffs wages on a timely basis.

9. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiffs to all other similarly situated employees.

10. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

11. Plaintiffs now bring this action on behalf of themselves, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq.

and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

12. Plaintiffs seek certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of themselves, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a).

14. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a wholesale and retail seller of gourmet salads located in this district. Further, Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants in this district.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

22. Defendants operate a wholesale and retail seller of gourmet salads located in the Mill Basin neighborhood in Brooklyn.

23. Individual Defendant, Asher Ben Tov, possesses operational control over Defendant Corporation, possesses ownership interests in Defendant Corporation, and controls significant functions of Defendant Corporation.

25. Each Defendant possessed substantial control over Plaintiffs' (and other similarly situated employees') working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of Plaintiffs, and all similarly situated individuals, referred to herein.

26. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiffs' (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

27. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiffs and/or similarly situated individuals.

28. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendant Asher Ben Tov operates Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of himself and/or fails to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from himself, by among other things:

- a) failing to adhere to the corporate formalities necessary to operate Defendant Corporation as a Corporation,

- b) defectively forming or maintaining the corporate entity of Defendant Corporation, by, amongst other things, failing to hold annual meetings or maintaining appropriate corporate records,
- c) transferring assets and debts freely as between all Defendants,
- d) operating Defendant Corporation for his own benefit as the sole or majority shareholder,
- e) operating Defendant Corporation for his own benefit and maintaining control over this corporation as a closed Corporation,
- f) intermingling assets and debts of his own with Defendant Corporation,
- g) diminishing and/or transferring assets of Defendant Corporation to avoid full liability as necessary to protect his own interests, and
- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

29. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiffs' employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiffs, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiffs' services.

30. In each year from 2015 to 2020, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

31. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the company on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiffs

32. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants who were employed as a kitchen manager and a salad preparer.

33. Plaintiffs seek to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Eugenio Sevilla

34. Plaintiff Sevilla was employed by Defendants from approximately November 20, 2015 until on or about August 7, 2020.

35. Defendants employed Plaintiff Sevilla as a kitchen manager.

36. Plaintiff Sevilla regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

37. Plaintiff Sevilla's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

38. From approximately November 2015 until on or about March 15, 2020, Plaintiff Sevilla worked from approximately 8:00 a.m. until on or about 6:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays and from approximately 8:00 a.m. until on or about 11:00 p.m., on Fridays (typically 55 hours per week).

39. From approximately March 16, 2020 until on or about July 31, 2020, Plaintiff Sevilla worked from approximately 5:00 a.m. until on or about 10:00 p.m., Sundays through Fridays (typically 102 hours per week).

40. From approximately August 1, 2020 until on or about August 6, 2020, Plaintiff Sevilla worked from approximately 8:00 a.m. until on or about 6:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays (typically 40 hours per week).

41. Throughout his employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Sevilla his wages in cash.

42. From approximately November 2015 until on or about August 2020, Defendants paid Plaintiff Sevilla $12.00 per hour.

43. Plaintiff Sevilla's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

44. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Sevilla to start working 30 minutes prior to his scheduled start time and continue working 30 minutes past his scheduled departure time two to three days a week, and did not pay him for the additional time he worked.

45. Plaintiff Sevilla was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

46. Instead, Defendant Asher Ben Tov would make up Plaintiff Sevilla's start and stop times, and Plaintiff Sevilla would have to argue with him to correct the times.

47. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Sevilla regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

48. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Sevilla an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

49. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Sevilla, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Sevilla's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

50. Defendants required Plaintiff Sevilla to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including annual kitchen supplies.

Plaintiff Stephanie Garrido

51. Plaintiff Garrido was employed by Defendants from approximately July 15, 2017 until on or about August 7, 2020.

52. Defendants employed Plaintiff Garrido as a salad preparer.

53. Plaintiff Garrido regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

54. Plaintiff Garrido's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

55. Throughout her employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Garrido regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

56. From approximately July 15, 2017 until on or about March 15, 2020, Plaintiff Garrido worked from approximately 8:00 a.m. until on or about 6:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays and from approximately 8:00 a.m. until on or about 11:00 p.m. on Fridays (typically 55 hours per week).

57. From approximately March 16, 2020 until on or about July 31, 2020, Plaintiff Garrido worked from approximately 5:00 a.m. until on or about 10:00 p.m., Sundays through Fridays (typically 102 hours per week).

58. From approximately August 1, 2020 until on or about August 6, 2020, Plaintiff Garrido worked from approximately 8:00 a.m. until on or about 6:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays (typically 40 hours per week).

59. Throughout her employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Garrido her wages in cash.

60. From approximately July 2017 until on or about August 2020, Defendants paid Plaintiff Garrido $12.00 per hour.

61. Plaintiff Garrido's pay did not vary even when she was required to stay later or work a longer day than her usual schedule.

62. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Garrido to start working 1 to 2 hours prior to her scheduled start time and continue working 1 to 2 hours past her scheduled departure time once every two weeks, and did not pay her for the additional time she worked.

63. Although defendants granted Plaintiff Garrido 15 minutes to eat her meals, they would interrupt her constantly while she was eating her meal standing up outside the business.

64. Plaintiff Garrido was not required to keep track of her time, nor to her knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected her actual hours worked.

65. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Garrido regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

66. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Garrido an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

67. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Garrido, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Garrido's primary language), of her rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

68. Defendants required Plaintiff Garrido to purchase "tools of the trade" with her own funds—including kitchen supplies.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

69. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying them appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

70. Plaintiffs were victims of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate their rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying them the wages they were owed for the hours they worked.

71. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiffs not receiving payment for all their hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiffs' effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

72. Defendants habitually required Plaintiffs to work additional hours beyond their regular shifts but did not provide them with any additional compensation.

73. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

74. Defendants paid Plaintiffs their wages in cash.

75. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

76. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiffs (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiffs properly for their full hours worked.

77. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

78. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiffs and other similarly situated former workers.

79. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

80. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

Plaintiffs bring their FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the "FLSA Class members"), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the "FLSA Class Period").

82. At all relevant times, Plaintiffs and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been
